

LOLL

Meaning: To loll means to sit, lie, or lean in a relaxed or lazy manner.

1. She decided to loll on the couch all afternoon, enjoying her favorite show.
2. The cat liked to loll in the sunbeam that streamed through the window.
3. After a long hike, they found a shady spot to loll and rest their tired legs.
4. He would often loll around the park, watching the world pass by without a care.
5. They spent the weekend lolling by the pool, sipping cold drinks and soaking up the sun.
6. She decided to loll on the couch all afternoon, enjoying her favorite movie.
7. The cat liked to loll in the sunbeams that streamed through the window.
8. After a long hike, they chose to loll by the river and relax for a while.
9. He would often loll around in the garden, lost in thought and surrounded by flowers.
10. On lazy Sundays, they loved to loll in bed, reading and sipping coffee.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loll>