

LOLLIPOP

Meaning: A lollipop is a sweet confectionery treat consisting of a flavored candy mounted on a stick, often enjoyed by children and used as a gesture of goodwill.

1. The child squealed with delight as she unwrapped her favorite rainbow lollipop.
2. He offered her a lollipop as a sweet gesture to break the ice during their first date.
3. After a long day at the fair, she savored the last remnants of her cherry lollipop.
4. The colorful display of lollipops in the candy store window caught the attention of passersby.
5. Each lollipop had a unique flavor that made choosing just one a difficult decision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lollipop>