

LONG-SUFFERING

Meaning: Long-suffering: enduring prolonged hardship or suffering with patience and resilience.

1. The long-suffering mother patiently waited for her children to return home safely.
2. After years of dealing with various challenges, her long-suffering attitude finally paid off.
3. His long-suffering patience with the team's inefficiencies earned him the respect of his peers.
4. The long-suffering residents of the town rallied together to support each other during the crisis.
5. Despite the long-suffering nature of their relationship, they found joy in the little moments.
6. Her long-suffering nature made her a pillar of strength during tough times.
7. The long-suffering residents finally saw improvement in their community after years of neglect.
8. His long-suffering attitude towards his children's antics often left him exhausted but proud.
9. Despite being long-suffering, she always found a way to smile through adversity.
10. The long-suffering employees were relieved when management announced new policies to address their concerns.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/long-suffering>