

LONG

Meaning: Long: extending a great distance in time or duration; lasting for a considerable period.

1. The meeting felt long and drawn out, with discussions that never seemed to end.
2. After a long day at work, she enjoyed relaxing with a good book.
3. He has been saving for a long time to afford his dream car.
4. The marathon was a long and challenging race, but she felt accomplished crossing the finish line.
5. Their long friendship was built on trust and shared experiences.
6. The marathon was a long and grueling test of endurance.
7. She held onto the memory of their long conversation late into the night.
8. After a long day at work, he enjoyed relaxing with a good book.
9. The river winds through a long valley, creating stunning views along the way.
10. They shared a long laugh over the silly mistake made during the presentation.
11. The meeting felt long as we debated the same issues for hours.
12. She took a long walk along the beach to clear her mind.
13. He has always had a long-standing interest in astronomy.
14. The novel was too long for my taste, but the characters were well-developed.
15. After a long day at work, all she wanted was to relax at home.
16. The journey was long and exhausting, but the breathtaking views made it worthwhile.
17. She found a long strand of hair caught in the zipper of her jacket.
18. The meeting felt like it lasted a long time, but they finally reached a consensus.
19. They had a long history of friendship, filled with countless shared memories.
20. The meeting felt long and tedious, dragging on well past its scheduled end.
21. She wore a long dress that flowed elegantly as she walked.
22. After a long day at work, he enjoyed unwinding with a good book.

23. The road stretched out long ahead, disappearing into the horizon.

24. They shared a long hug before saying goodbye at the airport.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/long>