

LONGNOSE

Meaning: Longnose (noun): A type of fish characterized by an elongated snout, exemplified by species such as the longnose gar and longnose sucker.

1. The longnose gar is known for its distinctive elongated snout.
2. In the world of fish, the longnose sucker is a fascinating species to study.
3. Fishermen often seek out the longnose catfish due to its unique flavor.
4. During our hike, we spotted a longnose snake slithering across the trail.
5. The longnose butterflyfish is a vibrant addition to any coral reef aquarium.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/longnose>