

LONGSHOREMAN

Meaning: A longshoreman is a worker who loads and unloads cargo from ships at a port.

1. The longshoreman skillfully maneuvered the cargo bags onto the ship.
2. After years of hard work, the longshoreman earned a reputation for his reliability.
3. During the busy season, each longshoreman was responsible for handling multiple containers.
4. The longshoreman's union negotiated better wages and safer working conditions for its members.
5. With the rising demand for shipping, the role of the longshoreman has become increasingly vital.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/longshoreman>