

LOOKDOWN

Meaning: Look down (verb): to regard someone with disdain or contempt, often due to perceived inferiority or difference.

1. Many people tend to look down on those who are struggling financially.
2. The child felt hurt when he realized his classmates would look down on him for being different.
3. It's disheartening to see how some individuals look down upon others based on superficial judgments.
4. In her new role, she vowed never to look down on anyone, regardless of their past mistakes.
5. The teacher encouraged her students to uplift one another instead of looking down at their peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lookdown>