

LOOKER

Meaning: LOOKER (noun): A person, typically attractive, who draws attention or admiration for their physical appearance.

1. She walked into the room, and everyone turned to admire the striking looker she was.
2. Despite her humble demeanor, she was a real looker who turned heads wherever she went.
3. The fashion show featured a stunning looker who effortlessly caught the attention of the audience.
4. He couldn't help but notice that the new neighbor was quite the looker, drawing compliments from everyone.
5. In a world full of average faces, she stood out as a true looker with her unique style and charm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/looker>