

LOOPLIGHT

Meaning: Looplight: a small window or opening, typically in a fortification or castle, designed to allow light in while providing a defensive view.

1. The old castle's looplight provided a unique glimpse into its storied past.
2. During the renovation, they discovered a hidden looplight that illuminated the dark staircase.
3. Architects often incorporate looplights in designs to enhance natural lighting in interior spaces.
4. The looplight in the ancient battlements served both a practical and aesthetic purpose.
5. As the sun set, the looplight cast beautiful patterns on the stone walls of the fortress.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/looplight>