

LOP

Meaning: LOP (verb): to cut off or remove a part of something, especially branches from a tree.

1. The gardener decided to lop off the dead branches to encourage new growth.
2. He watched as the tree service team expertly lopped the towering oak.
3. After the storm, they had to lop the sagging limbs to prevent damage to the roof.
4. To maintain the shape of the hedge, she regularly lops a few inches from the top.
5. The artist chose to lop the canvas to create a more dynamic composition.
6. The gardener decided to lop off the overgrown branches to encourage new growth.
7. During the storm, the strong winds caused a tree to lop its heavy limbs onto the street.
8. I asked the carpenter if he could lop the excess wood from the table leg for a smoother finish.
9. To improve visibility, the city plans to lop the hedges along the sidewalk.
10. She watched as the chef expertly lopped the top off the pineapple before slicing it.
11. The gardener decided to lop off the overgrown branches to promote healthier growth.
12. During the storm, the strong winds caused the tree to lop dangerously to one side.
13. She plans to lop the excess expenses from her budget to save more money.
14. The artist chose to lop the canvas into smaller pieces for a unique gallery display.
15. After reviewing the project, the manager decided to lop the unnecessary features for simplicity.
16. He used a sharp saw to lop the tree down to a more manageable height.
17. To maintain the shape of the hedge, she had to regularly lop the excess foliage.
18. After the storm, they had to lop the damaged limbs from the old oak tree.
19. The artist chose to lop the canvas to better fit the frame he had selected.
20. The gardener decided to lop off the dead branches to promote new growth.
21. During the storm, the strong winds caused several trees to lop over, blocking the road.
22. To improve the view, we should lop the hedges back before summer.

23. In the cooking class, the chef instructed us to lop the herbs finely for the dish.
24. He had to lop his expectations after realizing the project would take much longer than planned.
25. The gardener decided to lop the overgrown branches to encourage new growth.
26. In the midst of the storm, the wind caused several trees to lop dangerously close to the house.
27. He used a sharp saw to expertly lop off the excess wood from the antique table.
28. After the meeting, the manager instructed his team to lop the project timeline in half.
29. To maintain a neat appearance, she would regularly lop the hedges in her front yard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lop>