

LOPE

Meaning: LOPE (verb): To run with a long, bounding stride.

1. The deer began to lope gracefully across the open field.
2. He decided to lope along the trail, enjoying the fresh air and scenery.
3. With a burst of energy, the dog started to lope after the ball thrown by its owner.
4. As the sun set, the horse began to lope, its mane flowing in the breeze.
5. She watched the athlete lope effortlessly around the track during the race.
6. The deer began to lope gracefully across the field as the sun set.
7. He decided to lope home after a long day at work, enjoying the cool evening breeze.
8. As the runner approached the finish line, he picked up speed and began to lope with excitement.
9. The horse had a distinctive lope that made it easy to recognize from a distance.
10. She watched her dog lope happily along the beach, chasing after the waves.
11. The deer began to lope gracefully across the open meadow.
12. As he grew tired, his pace shifted from a run to a leisurely lope.
13. She watched her dog lope along the beach, soaking up the sun.
14. With each lope, the horse seemed to gain more energy and speed.
15. They decided to lope through the forest trail, enjoying the fresh air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lope>