

LOPEARED

Meaning: LOPEARED: adjective describing an animal, particularly a dog or rabbit, that has long, drooping ears that hang down or flop over.

1. The playful dog, with its loperared ears flapping in the wind, raced joyfully through the park.
2. As the sun set, the loperared rabbit hopped cautiously across the field, blending into the golden grass.
3. She admired the ancient sculpture of a mythical creature, its loperared head giving it an air of whimsy.
4. The children laughed as they watched the loperared puppy chase after the bouncing ball.
5. In the storybook, the loperared fox was known for its clever tricks and swift escapes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lopeared>