

LOPER

Meaning: LOPER: a person or animal that moves with a long, bounding stride, often in a graceful or agile manner.

1. The loper gracefully moved through the fields, chasing after the sun's rays.
2. As a skilled loper, she easily outran her competitors during the local marathon.
3. His long strides made him an efficient loper, effortlessly gliding across the track.
4. The documentary showcased the life of a loper, highlighting the joys and challenges of the sport.
5. In the quiet morning, the loper could be seen training along the riverbank, lost in thought.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loper>