

LORDLING

Meaning: LORDLING: A young nobleman or minor aristocrat, often characterized by a sense of entitlement or pretension.

1. The lordling strode confidently into the hall, eager to impress his peers.
2. Despite his noble lineage, the lordling often found solace among the common folk.
3. With dreams of grandeur, the young lordling plotted to expand his family's influence.
4. In the shadow of his father's reputation, the lordling struggled to carve out his own identity.
5. The feasting was lively, with the lordling regaling the guests with tales of adventure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lordling>