

LORICATING

Meaning: LORICATING refers to the process by which certain organisms form or utilize protective coverings or structures, often for survival in challenging environments.

1. The researchers observed the loricate behavior of certain marine organisms under microscope.
2. In ancient texts, loricate is often described as a vital process for survival in harsh environments.
3. The newly discovered species demonstrated a unique loricate technique that baffled scientists.
4. Loricate is essential for the formation of protective structures in many aquatic creatures.
5. Understanding the mechanics of loricate can shed light on evolutionary adaptations in diverse habitats.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/loricate>