

LORICATION

Meaning: Lorication is the process of forming a protective layer in biological organisms, aiding their survival in harsh environments.

1. Lorication refers to the process of forming a protective layer, often seen in various biological organisms.
2. The lorication of certain microorganisms enables them to survive harsh environmental conditions.
3. Researchers are intrigued by the lorication observed in some species of algae, which aids in their resilience.
4. Understanding lorication can provide insights into evolutionary adaptations in different ecosystems.
5. In aquaculture, enhancing lorication in fish species can improve their survival rates during transport.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lorication>