

LOSABLE

Meaning: Losable (adjective): capable of being lost or easily misplaced.

1. The keys to the new office are easily losable, so I always keep a spare set in my bag.
2. During the hectic party, I realized that my phone was losable if I wasn't careful about where I set it down.
3. She warned him that the rare collectible was losable and needed to be stored securely.
4. In the midst of packing for the trip, I lost track of my losable items like chargers and headphones.
5. The committee discussed how losable materials could hinder their progress if not managed properly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/losable>