

LOSINGLY

Meaning: Losingly: in a manner that conveys a sense of heaviness or weight, often implying a loss of clarity or focus in speech.

1. He spoke losingly, as if the weight of his words was too heavy to bear.
2. The details of their conversation faded in her mind, leaving only the losingly whispered promises.
3. As the evening wore on, he began to reflect losingly on the choices that had led him there.
4. She gazed losingly out the window, lost in thoughts of what might have been.
5. In a losingly manner, he recounted the events, each word dripping with regret.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/losingly>