

LOUGH

Meaning: Lough: a lake or an inlet, especially in Ireland, often characterized by scenic beauty.

1. The picturesque lough shimmered under the late afternoon sun.
2. Families often gather by the lough to picnic and enjoy the tranquil scenery.
3. Anglers flock to the lough every spring, hoping to catch the elusive trout.
4. Wildlife enthusiasts often spot rare birds near the edges of the lough.
5. The ancient legends surrounding the lough added a sense of mystery to the landscape.
6. The picturesque lough reflected the vibrant colors of the sunset.
7. We spent the afternoon kayaking on the tranquil lough, enjoying the serene surroundings.
8. Locals often fish in the lough, hoping to catch trout and salmon.
9. As we hiked along the lough's edge, we spotted a family of swans gliding gracefully across the water.
10. The lough was a popular spot for picnics, with families gathering to enjoy the scenery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lough>