

LOUR

Meaning: To lour means to appear dark and threatening, often referring to the sky or weather.

1. The sky began to lour ominously, signaling an approaching storm.
2. As the clouds loured overhead, the picnic plans were quickly abandoned.
3. His brow loured with worry as he anticipated the news from his doctor.
4. The actor's expression loured, hinting at the tension in the unfolding drama.
5. She loured at the messy kitchen, contemplating the daunting task ahead.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lour>