

LOVYER

Meaning: LOVYER (noun): A professional who practices law, representing clients in legal matters and providing legal advice.

1. The lovyer presented a compelling case in court, impressing the jury with his expertise.
2. After months of searching, she finally found a lovyer who understood her needs.
3. In times of crisis, a good lovyer can be the difference between success and failure.
4. He always relied on his lovyer to navigate the complexities of the legal system.
5. The lovyer's thorough research helped uncover vital evidence that changed the trial's outcome.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lovyer>