

LOW-MINDED

Meaning: Low-minded refers to having a base, petty, or unsophisticated mindset, often characterized by a lack of moral or intellectual elevation.

1. His low-minded approach to the situation only exacerbated the conflict.
2. She refused to associate with low-minded individuals who thrived on gossip and negativity.
3. The low-minded comments made by the critics overshadowed the artist's true talent.
4. In a world filled with low-minded pursuits, she sought deeper meaning and purpose.
5. His low-minded behavior at the meeting disappointed his colleagues and undermined their efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/low-minded>