

LOW-PRESSURE

Meaning: Low-pressure refers to a condition or environment characterized by reduced atmospheric pressure or a lack of stress and urgency, promoting a more relaxed and creative atmosphere.

1. The weather forecast predicts a low-pressure system moving into the area this weekend.
2. She prefers low-pressure environments where creativity can flourish without the stress of tight deadlines.
3. The doctor explained that low-pressure zones in the eye can indicate a risk for glaucoma.
4. During the experiment, the team observed how low-pressure conditions affected the boiling point of the liquid.
5. The low-pressure sales approach focuses on building relationships rather than pushing for immediate transactions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/low-pressure>