

LOW

Meaning: Low: situated at a small distance from the ground or at a lesser degree or amount than is normal or expected.

1. The company's profits remained low despite their efforts to increase sales.
2. She felt a low sense of energy after staying up late the night before.
3. His voice was low and soothing, perfect for telling bedtime stories.
4. The temperature dropped to a low point overnight, prompting a frost warning.
5. They decided to keep the music low to create a more intimate atmosphere.
6. The company's profits were unusually low this quarter, prompting concern among investors.
7. She kept her voice low to avoid waking the baby sleeping in the next room.
8. The low temperature outside made it a perfect day for a cozy indoor gathering.
9. His low opinion of the proposal surprised many, considering the positive feedback from others.
10. They decided to take the low road along the river for a more scenic view.
11. The low humming of the bees filled the garden with a soothing sound.
12. She wore a low-cut dress that elegantly accentuated her figure.
13. During the winter months, the temperatures in the area can drop to dangerously low levels.
14. His low voice made it difficult for everyone to hear him during the meeting.
15. The project's success was attributed to its low budget and high efficiency.
16. The low hum of the refrigerator was the only sound in the quiet kitchen.
17. She preferred wearing low heels for comfort during long days at work.
18. The artist chose a low color palette to evoke a sense of calm in the painting.
19. His low voice carried across the room, drawing everyone's attention.
20. Their expectations were set low, but they were pleasantly surprised by the outcome.
21. The singer's voice was remarkably low, resonating deeply with the audience.
22. The company decided to lower the price of their product to attract more customers.

23. Despite his low energy, he managed to finish the project on time.
24. The tree's branches hung low, almost touching the ground after the heavy rain.
25. She spoke in a low whisper, not wanting to disturb anyone in the library.
26. The temperature is unusually low for this time of year.
27. She spoke in a low voice to avoid waking the baby.
28. His self-esteem was low after receiving the criticism.
29. The company reported a low profit margin this quarter.
30. Low clouds hung over the valley, casting a gloomy shadow.
31. The low hum of the refrigerator was a comforting background noise.
32. She felt a sense of pride despite the low score on her exam.
33. The sun dipped below the horizon, casting a low golden light across the landscape.
34. His voice was low and soothing, perfect for bedtime stories.
35. They decided to host a low-key gathering with just a few close friends.
36. The airplane flew at a low altitude to avoid detection.
37. Her low voice barely reached the back of the room.
38. They offered a low price to attract more customers.
39. The sun set behind the mountains, casting a low light over the valley.
40. His expectations were low, which made the surprise even more delightful.
41. The prices at the market were surprisingly low this week.
42. Her energy levels felt low after a long day at work.
43. He spoke in a low voice to avoid waking the baby.
44. The stock market experienced a low after the news broke.
45. They chose a low table for the cozy living room setup.
46. The stock market experienced a low point last week, causing concern among investors.
47. Her voice was so low that I had to lean in to hear what she was saying.
48. The mountain trail was steep, but the view from the low valley was breathtaking.

49. His low tolerance for heat made summer outings a challenge for him.
50. They set the music to a low volume so as not to disturb the neighbors.
51. The team was disappointed to find their chances of winning were low.
52. She kept her voice low to avoid waking the baby.
53. His low energy levels made it difficult to stay focused during the meeting.
54. The price of the concert tickets was surprisingly low this year.
55. After weeks of rain, the river's water level was alarmingly low.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/low>