

LUBBERLY

Meaning: LUBBERLY: awkward or clumsy in movement or behavior.

1. His lubberly attempts at sailing often left the crew in fits of laughter.
2. Despite his lubberly demeanor, he had a knack for fixing things around the house.
3. The lubberly child stumbled over his own feet while trying to impress his friends.
4. Everyone knew her lubberly approach to cooking would lead to a kitchen disaster.
5. Even in his lubberly pursuits, there was a certain charm that endeared him to others.
6. His lubberly attempts at dancing made everyone laugh at the party.
7. The lubberly sailor struggled to keep his balance on the swaying ship.
8. Despite his lubberly manner, he managed to charm the crowd with his enthusiasm.
9. Her lubberly approach to gardening resulted in a chaotic but colorful backyard.
10. They found his lubberly attitude endearing, even if it meant more work for the team.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lubberly>