

LUBRICATE

Meaning: To lubricate means to apply a substance (such as oil or grease) to reduce friction and facilitate smooth movement between mechanical parts.

1. It's important to lubricate the gears regularly to ensure smooth operation.
2. Before assembling the drawer slides, remember to lubricate them for easier movement.
3. The mechanic advised me to lubricate the engine parts to prevent wear and tear.
4. To avoid rust, you should lubricate the metal components of your tools after each use.
5. She used a silicone spray to lubricate the rubber seals on the windows.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lubricate>