

LUBRICATION

Meaning: Lubrication is the process of applying a substance to reduce friction between moving parts in machinery, thereby preventing wear and ensuring smooth operation.

1. Proper lubrication is essential to ensure the longevity of mechanical components.
2. The technician emphasized the importance of regular lubrication to prevent wear and tear.
3. Different machines require specific types of lubrication to operate efficiently.
4. Without adequate lubrication, the engine would quickly overheat and fail.
5. Incorporating advanced lubrication systems can significantly improve equipment performance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lubrication>