

LUCTATION

Meaning: Luctation refers to a state of agitation or wavering, often characterized by nervousness or indecision.

1. The athlete's luctation before the final race showcased her nervous energy and determination.
2. In a moment of luctation, he realized that his indecision was holding him back from making progress.
3. The luctation of the river's waters reflected the turmoil of the storm brewing overhead.
4. Her luctation during the meeting prompted her colleagues to reconsider their initial proposal.
5. As he faced the daunting challenge, a brief luctation crossed his mind, but he quickly regained his focus.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/luctation>