

LUCUBRATION

Meaning: Lucubration refers to the act of studying or working late into the night, especially in a scholarly or creative context.

1. His late-night lucubration led to a breakthrough in his research project.
2. The poet's lucubration resulted in a collection of profound and moving verses.
3. After hours of lucubration, she finally understood the complex theories behind quantum mechanics.
4. The scientist shared his lucubration with colleagues, hoping to inspire new ideas for their experiments.
5. Despite the fatigue from his lucubration, he felt a sense of accomplishment as he reviewed his notes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lucubration>