

LUCULENT

Meaning: LUCULENT: Adjective describing something that is richly clear, vividly expressive, or sumptuous in quality.

1. The chef prepared a luculent feast that left everyone at the table in awe.
2. His luculent prose captivated readers, drawing them into the vivid world he created.
3. The luculent colors of the sunset made the evening feel almost magical.
4. Her luculent explanations made even the most complex theories accessible to all.
5. The artist's luculent style was evident in the vibrant details of her paintings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/luculent>