

LULL

Meaning: LULL (verb): To calm or soothe someone into a state of sleep or relaxation.

1. The gentle sound of the waves began to lull her into a peaceful slumber.
2. He tried to lull the baby to sleep by softly humming a lullaby.
3. As the sun set behind the mountains, a calming lull settled over the valley.
4. The teacher's soothing voice helped to lull the students into a focused state.
5. She found it difficult to stay awake during the monotonous lecture that seemed to lull everyone into daydreams.
6. The gentle sound of the waves began to lull her into a peaceful sleep.
7. He used a soft lullaby to soothe the baby back to rest.
8. A sense of calm filled the room, as the meeting seemed to lull into silence.
9. The warm sunlight streaming through the window helped to lull him into a comfortable doze.
10. As the storm passed, the rain's rhythmic patter seemed to lull the town into a serene quietness.
11. The soft sound of the waves began to lull her into a peaceful sleep.
12. He used a gentle melody to lull the restless child into slumber.
13. After a long day, the quiet of the evening helped to lull his worries away.
14. The rhythmic motion of the train seemed to lull the passengers into a comfortable trance.
15. She hoped the warm tea would lull her mind and ease her anxiety before the meeting.