

LULLER

Meaning: LULLER (noun): A calming or soothing influence that induces relaxation or sleep.

1. The gentle breeze served as a natural lullaby, acting as a true lull for the restless baby.
2. As the sun set behind the hills, the soothing sounds of the river created a perfect luller for the evening.
3. His soft voice was a luller that eased her worries and helped her drift off to sleep.
4. The rhythmic waves crashing on the shore became a luller, calming the crowd gathered for the bonfire.
5. In the quiet of the library, the turning pages acted like a luller, drawing everyone into a peaceful silence.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/luller>