

LUMINATE

Meaning: Luminates: to illuminate or brighten, especially by casting light or enhancing colors.

1. The artist used vibrant colors to luminate the canvas, creating a stunning visual experience.
2. The full moon began to luminate the landscape, casting a silvery glow over the quiet village.
3. As the sun set, the sky started to luminate with hues of orange and pink, signaling the end of the day.
4. Her smile seemed to luminate the room, brightening the spirits of everyone present.
5. The new design of the lamp was intended to luminate the entire space, enhancing both style and functionality.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/luminate>