

LUMP

Meaning: LUMP (noun): a solid mass or piece of a substance, often irregular in shape, such as clay or a swelling on the body.

1. The child picked up a lump of clay and began to shape it into a pot.
2. After the fall, she felt a painful lump on her forehead that concerned her.
3. He discovered a lump of coal hidden beneath the old shed during the cleanup.
4. The doctor examined the lump in her throat and recommended further tests.
5. They found a lump in the road and had to drive around it carefully.
6. The doctor examined the lump on her arm, concerned it might be something serious.
7. After a long hike, he found a lump of dirt stuck to the bottom of his shoe.
8. She felt a lump in her throat as she listened to the emotional speech.
9. The children played with a large lump of clay, molding it into various shapes.
10. He decided to tackle the lump of paperwork on his desk first thing in the morning.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lump>