

LUMPER

Meaning: A lumper is a laborer who is responsible for sorting, unloading, and categorizing goods or cargo, particularly in warehouses or the fishing industry.

1. The lumper was responsible for sorting the cargo as it arrived at the warehouse.
2. In the fishing industry, a lumper is often hired to help unload and categorize the catch.
3. The team decided to hire a lumper to speed up the loading process for the upcoming event.
4. As a lumper, he developed a keen eye for distinguishing between different types of merchandise.
5. Local businesses often rely on lumpers to handle large shipments efficiently during peak seasons.
6. The lumper worked tirelessly to unload the shipping containers at the busy dock.
7. In the world of freight, a lumper is often hired to assist with heavy lifting.
8. As a lumper, he developed a keen sense of efficiency when organizing cargo.
9. Despite the physical demands of the job, the lumper found satisfaction in seeing the completed tasks.
10. During the peak season, the company relied heavily on a team of lumpers to keep operations running smoothly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lumper>