

LUMPING

Meaning: LUMPING (verb): the act of grouping or categorizing disparate items or issues together without distinguishing their differences.

1. Lumping all the issues together made it difficult to address each one effectively.
2. He was criticized for lumping different genres of music into a single category.
3. The teacher warned against lumping students based on their performance in one test.
4. Lumping together similar products can help streamline the marketing strategy.
5. By lumping the expenses into one budget, they oversimplified the financial situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lumping>