

LUNATIC

Meaning: LUNATIC: a person who is considered mentally ill or irrational, often exhibiting eccentric or bizarre behavior.

1. The old man in the park often muttered to himself, leading some to label him a lunatic.
2. Many people dismissed his wild theories as the ramblings of a lunatic.
3. In the movie, the protagonist is chased by a lunatic who believes he has a special mission.
4. The authorities were alerted when a lunatic began causing chaos in the quiet town.
5. She found it hard to believe that a lunatic had once lived in her seemingly peaceful neighborhood.
6. The man shouted incoherently in the street, making everyone wonder if he was a lunatic.
7. In literature, the character of the lunatic often serves to highlight the absurdity of societal norms.
8. She dismissed his wild ideas as the ramblings of a lunatic, despite their potential truth.
9. The film portrayed the lunatic as a misunderstood genius rather than a mere villain.
10. Friends feared he was becoming a lunatic after he started talking to himself in public places.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lunatic>