

LUPULINE

Meaning: Lupuline is a yellow, powdery substance produced in the glands of hop cones, known for its aromatic properties and importance in brewing beer.

1. Lupuline is a yellow, powdery substance found in the glands of hop cones.
2. The distinct aroma of lupuline is essential for crafting flavorful beers.
3. Brewers often seek high lupuline content in hops to enhance the bittering and aromatic qualities of their brews.
4. Lupuline plays a crucial role in the brewing process, influencing both taste and aroma.
5. Wine enthusiasts may compare the bright, herbal notes of lupuline to certain aromatic white wines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lupuline>