

LUSTRUM

Meaning: Lustrum: a period of five years, often associated with a ceremonial purification or significant milestone.

1. The Roman tradition of celebrating a lustrum involved a purification ceremony every five years.
2. After five years of diligent research, the team finally published their findings, marking a significant lustrum in their academic journey.
3. The biologist noted that a lustrum is often required to fully understand the long-term effects of environmental changes.
4. In ancient Rome, a lustrum not only symbolized the passage of time but also served as a reminder of communal responsibilities.
5. As the anniversary of their first project approached, the group reflected on their growth over the lustrum since its inception.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lustrum>