

LUTULENT

Meaning: Lutulent (adjective): characterized by being muddy or swampy, often resulting in difficult or treacherous conditions.

1. The lutulent riverbed was a treacherous site for the unsuspecting hiker.
2. After the heavy rains, the farm fields became lutulent, making it difficult for the tractors to navigate.
3. Her shoes were caked in lutulent mud after the storm, leaving a trail of mess behind her.
4. The artist used lutulent shades of brown to capture the essence of the stormy landscape.
5. In the aftermath of the flood, the city was left with lutulent debris that needed to be cleared away.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lutulent>