

LYINGLY

Meaning: LYINGLY: in a manner characterized by falsehood or deception.

1. She spoke lyingly, weaving a tale that was far from the truth.
2. His lyingly crafted excuses only served to deepen the mistrust between them.
3. The report was filled with lyingly presented facts that misled the public.
4. They had lyingly assured her of their support, only to abandon her later.
5. It was hard to believe him after he had lyingly manipulated the situation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lyingly>