

LYMPHOGENIC

Meaning: Lymphogenic refers to the ability to produce or promote the formation of lymphatic tissue or the spread of disease through the lymphatic system.

1. Lymphogenic tumors can lead to significant complications if not diagnosed early.
2. The lymphogenic pathway plays a crucial role in the spread of certain cancers.
3. Researchers are investigating the lymphogenic mechanisms involved in immune response.
4. Infections can sometimes trigger a lymphogenic reaction, causing swelling in the affected area.
5. The study focused on the lymphogenic characteristics of various types of breast cancer.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/lymphogenic>