

MAB

Meaning: MAB (monoclonal antibody) refers to a laboratory-produced molecule engineered to target specific antigens in the treatment of diseases, including autoimmune disorders.

1. The monoclonal antibody (MAB) therapy showed promising results in the clinical trial.
2. Researchers are exploring the potential of MABs in treating autoimmune diseases.
3. The development of MABs has revolutionized the field of targeted cancer therapies.
4. His team published a groundbreaking study on the efficacy of a new MAB against viral infections.
5. MAB technology is enabling scientists to create more precise and effective treatments for various conditions.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/mab>