

MACEDONIANISM

Meaning: Macedonianism refers to a nationalistic movement advocating for the recognition and promotion of Macedonian identity, culture, and heritage, often in relation to historical claims in the Balkans.

1. Macedonianism is often discussed in the context of national identity and cultural heritage.
2. The rise of Macedonianism has sparked debates over historical claims in the Balkans.
3. Many scholars analyze Macedonianism as a movement seeking to emphasize regional pride.
4. The influence of Macedonianism can be seen in contemporary political discourse.
5. Critics argue that Macedonianism may lead to tensions between neighboring countries.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macedonianism>