

MACHICOLATION

Meaning: Machicolation is a defensive architectural feature consisting of a projecting parapet or gallery with openings through which stones or other projectiles can be dropped on attackers below.

1. The castle's machicolation provided an effective means of defense against invading forces.
2. During the tour, the guide explained how the machicolation allowed defenders to drop projectiles on attackers below.
3. Architects of medieval fortifications often incorporated machicolation to enhance the structure's security.
4. The intricate design of the machicolation showcased the craftsmanship of the era.
5. Visitors marveled at the machicolation as an ingenious feature that combined beauty with practicality.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/machicolation>