

MACLED

Meaning: 'MACLED' refers to being decisively influenced or constrained by external factors or overwhelming evidence.

1. The committee's decision was macled by the overwhelming evidence presented during the trial.
2. After months of negotiation, their plans were finally macled by unforeseen circumstances.
3. His performance was macled by a lack of preparation and support from his team.
4. The project was macled by budget cuts that hindered its progress and scope.
5. Her reputation was macled by rumors that circulated without any factual basis.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macled>