

MACROCOSM

Meaning: Macrocosm refers to a large, complex system or entity that encompasses and reflects the entirety of a larger reality, such as the universe or societal structures.

1. The universe is often described as a macocosm, encompassing everything from galaxies to subatomic particles.
2. In her novel, the author cleverly contrasts the individual's struggles with the larger macocosm of societal issues.
3. The scientist's research aimed to draw parallels between human behavior and the natural macocosm surrounding us.
4. Understanding the macocosm can lead to insights about our place within the broader context of existence.
5. Philosophers frequently debate the implications of a macocosm in relation to the microcosm of human experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macocosm>