

MACROCOSMIC

Meaning: Macroscopic refers to a viewpoint or perspective that encompasses large-scale or holistic aspects, particularly in relation to the universe or overarching concepts.

1. The artist's work captures a macroscopic view of the universe, illustrating the interconnectedness of all things.
2. In philosophy, the macroscopic perspective enables a broader understanding of human existence beyond individual experiences.
3. Scientists often debate whether macroscopic phenomena can be entirely explained by microscopic laws of physics.
4. Her research focused on the macroscopic effects of climate change, highlighting the profound impact on ecosystems worldwide.
5. The novel explores macroscopic themes of love and loss, resonating with readers on a universal level.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macrocosmic>