

MACROGRAPH

Meaning: A macrograph is a large-scale photographic or digital image that captures fine details of an object, often used for analysis or artistic display.

1. The scientist used a macrograph to analyze the intricate details of the plant's cellular structure.
2. In the art gallery, a stunning macrograph of a butterfly wing showcased its vibrant patterns.
3. For her research project, she prepared a macrograph that clearly depicted the differences between two species of algae.
4. The macrograph revealed features that were invisible to the naked eye, impressing her peers.
5. By examining the macrograph, students could better understand the complexities of crystal formations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macrograph>