

MACROPODOUS

Meaning: Macropodous refers to having long feet or limbs, particularly in relation to marsupials like kangaroos, which are characterized by their elongated hind limbs adapted for jumping.

1. The macropodous kangaroo bounded gracefully across the open plains.
2. Scientists study the macropodous traits of various marsupials to understand their evolution.
3. In Australia, the macropodous family includes not only kangaroos but also wallabies and tree-kangaroos.
4. The unique macropodous anatomy allows these creatures to travel long distances in search of food.
5. Observing a macropodous animal in its natural habitat can be a breathtaking experience for wildlife enthusiasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/macropodous>